5. Subject for order.

6.8.20 Land reference is invited to the late Amildar Mr. V Subbaraoji report of 1.1.16, the Asst Dy Supdt's report of 17.2.19 and the Amildars report of 18.2.19 stating that the land in question is a Govt land, but has been appropriated for private use and that no compound wall should be allowed to be built round the Chattram in question which is being utilised at present for private purposes by one Rangamma who has stored rags & paddy therein.

7. The Dy Comr recommends that that person may be evicted from the Chattram which should be placed at the disposal of the temple, and that no compound wall should be allowed to be raised round the Chattram as that is obstructing place available for village cattle to land.

8. May the Dy Comr's recommn be sanctioned?

11/1/21. 93. In this office, the Divisional Supdt, Bangalore submitted Bha Shivaraja to construct a Chavadi Dwelling House on the land owned by Bidan Sabi, for the benefit of the public. As regards Bidan Sabi, owing to his pre-eminence in the village, as the said land was a pathway for village cattle and no other land could be given Bidan Sabi was given some Banjar land in exchange for the land to be used in the construction of the Chavadi.

The land in question belonged originally to one Burdpa Setti and it was agreed ~~to~~ by the local officers from him and Guila ~~to~~ Bhaskara for the Construction of a Musafarkana and there is evidence to show that it was built out of ~~private~~ Subscriptions Collected from the public. In the Account of 1860, the building is described as a Dharma Chattram. Travellers have all along been and even now are putting up in the Chattram. Lessee Guruby Bhaskara's descendants can have no private rights of ownership over the building and it is Convenient Appeals against the Dy. Comr's order directing that the apltt should not interfere in the affairs of the chattram building in question, which should be handed over to the Dharmadarsi of Veerabhadra Swami temple.

(43) The petition is duly stamped.

The order appealed against is the endorsement from the Assistant dy 11.1.22 issued in pursuance of orders conveyed in Letter no. 2243 dy 4.11.21 (Sl. A). The apltt contends that this endt reached him on the 25th March 1922, that his appeal which was filed before the Secretary on 10.6.22, is in time.

The apltt's contention is that the chattram was built solely by his father on the land which was granted to his great grand-father in 1856,
